Cyril Troyanov | Partner, Attorney at Law, M.C.J. (NYU)

Cyril has a broad experience in advising international high net-worth clients, assisting them in the development and management of their corporate and personal affairs. His areas of practice include corporate, civil and administrative law, with expertise in immigration law, contracts, mergers & acquisitions, real estate, family asset (re-)structuring as well as estate planning. To best serve his clients, Cyril cooperates with a global network of lawyers, tax experts, bankers, corporate consultants, trustees and accountants, especially focusing on Russia. Both his international expertise and long-standing professional experience continuously support him in finding the most adequate solutions for his clients and their families.

Next to his daily work, Cyril is a member of various professional associations (International, Swiss & Geneva Bar Associations) and of the Swiss-Russian & CIS Joint Chambers of Commerce, in Zurich. He actively engages in pro-bono activities in the field of medical care, education and human rights. For example, he is supporting the organisation of the "International Film Festival & Forum on Human Rights" taking place every March in Geneva. His passion for empowering people is a strong attribute consistently guiding him throughout both, his personal and professional life.

Before joining the firm, Cyril was a partner in two reputable Swiss law firms: Altenburger Ltd. legal+tax (2011-2020), and Secretan Troyanov (1986-2010). He is a graduate in law of Geneva University (lic. iur., 1980) and of New York University (MCJ, 1985). He was admitted to the Swiss Bar, in 1983, as well as to the New York Bar, in 1986. His international career lead him to be fluent in French, English, Russian, and German.
